as a member of the Board of Directors of the International Council of Nurses (ICN) I attended the I. Congress of nurses, nurse assistants and midwives of Republika Srpska, which was held from 5th to 8th of June 2014 in Banja Luka.

The congress was a great opportunity for nurses, midwives and nurse assistants to show a high level of expertise in the field of Nursing and Midwifery. A wide range of expert articles appeared competence of health professionals to offer residents more competent and holistic health care.

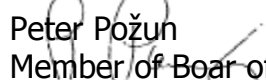

At the same time, they also expressed their firm intention to pursue its path in technical and professional recognition of their work in society.

The large contribution to the success of the congress, which was attended by a large number of participants from abroad, were given by Mrs. Živana Vukovic Kostic and Mrs. Biljana Pandžić who with all their expertise, will and courage made that this first professional event was successful.

Your excellency, allow me to express you on my own behalf and on behalf of the member of Board of Directors of ICN my congratulations to the team of so committed nurses, midwives and nurses of Republika Srpska.

With compliments

Peter Požun
Member of Board of Director ICN
